Description

You will commence your tour with departure from your hotel in Hue, accompanied by a local guide and dedicated driver. The tour begins with a walking exploration of the Imperial City, which served as the residence of the Nguyen emperors from 1802 to 1945. Highlights of the Imperial City include the Flag Tower, the Holy Cannons, the Gate of Ngo Mon, the Throne Hall, and the Dynastic Urns. Following your visit to the Imperial City, you will proceed to Dong Ba Market, located on the banks of the Huong (Perfume) River. As the largest and most vibrant market in Hue, Dong Ba Market offers a diverse array of shops and a vivid glimpse into the daily life of the local community.

Following lunch, the tour will continue with a leisurely boat trip. A motorized dragon boat will navigate the Huong River, arriving at the waterfront steps of Thien Mu Pagoda. Upon disembarking, you will have the opportunity to explore the pagoda, which offers impressive views of the river and the Phuoc Duyen Tower. The pagoda also houses the historic Austin car used by Thich Quang Duc, the Buddhist monk whose self-immolation in Saigon in 1963 left a lasting impact.

The exploration of the city's heritage will proceed with a visit to the mausoleum of Emperor Ming Mang, who reigned from 1820 to 1840. This mausoleum is a remarkable complex, showcasing the artistry and craftsmanship of Vietnamese architecture. After this visit, you will return to your driver and be transported back to your hotel.
