Description

Your tour begins with a departure from Danang for an exciting and vibrant excursion to the peak complex of Ba Na Mountain. While the replica of a French Village is a major attraction for local tourists, the Disney-style Fantasy Park and Jurassic Park provide endless fun for children. For those seeking tranquility, the peak trail offers a more serene experience, guiding nature lovers through worship shrines, scenic viewpoints, and ultimately to the 1,487-meter summit.

You'll start your adventure by taking the cable car to Marseille Station, where you'll visit the Golden Bridge, famously described by The Guardian as "the world's most impressive pedestrian bridge." From there, you'll hike toward Ba Na Station to see the iconic giant Buddha statue, and continue to Morin Station to reach the peak at Linh Chua Linh Tu, standing at 1,487 meters. Beyond these highlights, you're free to explore the theme parks or indulge in the many culinary delights available, with the French Village around Morin Station serving as your base.

In the late afternoon, you'll descend to the base station and enjoy a relaxing drive back to Danang.
