Description

Your day begins with a short transfer from Danang to Hoi An, a town that still retains the charm of a thriving medieval trading port in Southeast Asia. With its historic buildings, lantern-lit alleyways, bustling markets, expert tailors, artisan shops, old residences, and magnificent temples, Hoi An offers a captivating blend of history and culture. Accompanied by your knowledgeable local guide, you'll explore the town's beauty with a leisurely stroll through its quaint streets and narrow alleys. Key highlights include the iconic Japanese Bridge, the Fujian Congregation Hall, a UNESCO-protected shophouse, and the handicraft center.

Next, you'll transfer to Cam Thanh Village, where you'll enjoy the picturesque scenery of the nypa palm forest. Here, you'll experience a delightful ride in a traditional basket boat and be entertained by the boatmen's impressive basket dance performances. The tour then takes you to Tra Que Herb Village, where you'll gain a brief insight into the rustic lifestyle of the local gardeners.

The day concludes with a relaxing drive back to Danang.
