Description

Your tour begins with a meeting at your hotel, where you'll be greeted by your local guide before embarking on a half-day sightseeing adventure. The first stop is the Institute of Oceanography, a museum dedicated to marine life, featuring an extensive collection of marine specimens. Established by the French colonial government in 1922, the institute offers a fascinating glimpse into the region's rich aquatic biodiversity.

Next, you'll visit Long Son Pagoda, the headquarters of the provincial Buddhism Association. This pagoda is particularly renowned for its striking white Buddha statue that sits atop a hill, offering a serene and picturesque setting. The tour continues with a visit to Po Nagar Temple, a stunning architectural gem from the former Champa civilization. You'll also visit Hon Chong Rock, a scenic promontory of massive boulders extending into the sea. The tour concludes with your return to the hotel.
